Can you imagine a world where every child could live in a world where they feel safe, loved and celebrated? This is the vision that Rich Dutra-St. John, co-founder of the "Challenge Day Program" brings to youth and families across America. As a licensed family therapist and drug intervention specialist, Rich along side his wife Yvonne and their talented team of leaders, positively affect the lives of millions of youth and adults. Joins us on "The Hoffman Connection" to hear how the "Challenge Day Program" is influencing positive change in schools and the world. If you have ever dared to dr
