July 3rd 2012: Blind Students Class Action against a School for the Blind and Visually Impaired

Jonathan Bida is a lawyer in the class action group at Koskie Minsky LLP. Bob Seed is the lead plaintiff in a class-action against the Brantford school for the blind and visually impaired, which he attended from 1954 to 1965. They explain what the class action seeks to achieve, and how the allegations relate to experience of care at the school. They explain the class action and its different stages and what the court will be asked to decide. They discuss responsibilities and attitudes. They talk about the ways in which staff and administrator responsibilities did or should reflect standards o
