Turning Hard Times into Good Times Tuesday at 12 Noon Pacific

July 24th 2012: A Capitalism for the People. Gold for the People

Doug Groh visits for the first time and Luigi Zingales returns to further discuss "A Capitalism for the People." True free market capitalism levels the playing field and rewards suppliers who meet market demand rather than brown nosing and patronage activities, which is why Prof. Zingales moved to America. But now he sees an avoidance of competition and elitism to the detriment of all but the ruling elite. How can we move back toward a free market America? Meantime, how do Americans hang on to what they have against a socialist assault aimed at those who have been rewarded in the past by the
