August 1st 2012: The Spirit Garden with Bets Danko

Having gone through the challenge of being an Indigo child and being different in a world that didn't understand her, Bets Danko now assists others to re-connect with spirit and live up to their full potential. She has an ability to work closely with the Indigo children, many of whom have lost their way in a world that is not functioning in a way that works for them. Bets is also bridging the gap for older people who have been wounded by their experiences through the church, bringing them safely and lovingly back to spirit. Bets will explain how "The Spirit Garden" helps people unlock the secr

Bets Danko

Bets Danko is an Indigo adult who worked very hard to fit into a world she did not agree with. She was born highly intuitive and learned early on that "seeing things" wasn't cool and was definitely not acceptable in most social circles. Through her early experiences she learned to "turn off" her abilities, thus disconnecting her from her gifts and from Source. As it happens, Spirit found a way to lower the protective walls and "turn on" the gifts she was attempting to ignore. Through a series of amazing interventions, she was guided to learn more about love, light, spirit, and who we really are. Bets is now on a mission to help others live up to their full potential and learn to love who (an
