This week on the Hoffman Connection hear from two ground breaking women on how they help some of our country's most challenged and courageous youth break from generations of patterns to find healing, joy and limitless possibility. Process Teacher and Psychologist Linda Hartka-Reiss and Executive Director at Hyde Leadership Charter School in Bronx, NY, Joanne Goubourn tell us about their journey with these remarkable children. If you have ever needed inspiration about overcoming great odds, don't miss this show!

Featured Guests

Linda Hartka-Reiss

Linda Hartka-Reiss. "Teaching the Process has restored my faith in humanity and helped me truly love human beings; I have found that everyone is looking for the same things love, belonging, self-forgiveness, acceptance and happiness. Along with Hoffman teaching and coaching, Linda is a facilitator for spiritual retreats for women and works with both Youth-At-Risk and Hyde School programs. Before becoming a Process Teacher, Linda was a transpersonal psychologist and therapist in private practice.
