Wednesday at 1 PM Pacific
October 10th 2012: The Drama of Your Life

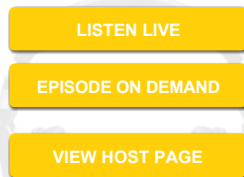

"Drama Queen!" Yeah, that's what we call those people who seem to be addicted to drama. But the truth is that we are all addicted to drama. In fact, we are so addicted that when the truth of our lives is presented to us, we will throw it under the bus in favor of the lie that has become the drama of our lives. We don't know that we are all living roles, wearing masks and costumes and playing out the roles we've chosen on the stage we've built to contain our lives. In fact, we are the playwright, the producer, the costume designer, the actor and the audience. But there is something else entire!
