October 15th 2012: The Science of Complexity in Non-linear Trends in Financial Markets

Our featured guest today, Keith Fitz-Gerald, is the Chairman of the Fitz-Gerald Group, as well as the Chief Investment Strategist for Money Map Press, where his daily analysis reaches 500,000 readers in 35 countries. He splits his time between the United States and Japan, and spends much of the year in China and emerging markets in search of investment opportunities others don't yet see. Keith has worked with think tanks around the world using his expertise in the science of complexity and in non-linear trends in the financial markets, to help policy makers predict future events, and prepare f
