What is it that gets in the way of most romantic relationships? It's simple: we can get confused about love. Our childhood bonding patterns affect our adult relationships - over and over. Whether you're married, single, or "other," understanding this principle is vital for growing into deeper love. Join us this week on the Hoffman Connection as Carista Luminare shares how simple, generous, warm, caring, and dependable love can truly be. For all of you romantics at heart, you won't want to miss this show!
