AUTISM SPECTRUM RADIO

Connecting the autism community with resources and information

WITH ROB HAUPT, DR. RONIT MOLKO AND DR. BILL FREA

Autism Spectrum Radio Archives Available November 27th 2012: Creative Expression

This week on Autism Spectrum Radio we look at the value of creativity and the arts for individuals with autism. Most families learn quickly the importance of creating the right program for their child with special needs. With no one "right" treatment for all children, families today are exploring the benefits of programs that allow children to express their creativity. This week, host Rob Haupt discusses some of the emerging programs and opportunities for our kids to engage through the arts. Rob is excited to welcome Elaine Hall Founder of The Miracle Project which was profiled in the docu

Elaine Hall

Elaine Hall "Coach E!" referenced by The New York Times as "the child whisperer," is a pioneer in using inclusive theater, film, music, and movement to bring out the best in individuals of all abilities. Elaine was a top Hollywood acting coach when her life changed dramatically after her son was diagnosed with severe autism. When traditional behavioral therapies didn't work, she sought information from experts in the field and then rallied creative people to implement what she learned. Slowly, her son merged out of isolation. Elaine developed these methods into "The Seven Keys to Unlock and Understand Autism" to train others and created The Miracle Project, a groundbreaking inclusive theat
