December 04th 2012: Mother/Daughter Relationships -How to Cultivate the Most Important Relationship of Your Daughter's Life Part II

The Mother/Daughter relationship can be one of the most challenging relationships for women over the course of a lifetime, especially during the adolescent years. Today's show looks at how understanding the interaction between different personalities types can support more effective communication between mothers and daughters. And we explore using popular films to break down barriers between mothers and daughters in a non-threatening way. Join us for an in-depth, thought-provoking discussion. And remember, your questions and comments are always welcome at change@marywaldon.com. Thank you for li
