

Family Caregivers Unite! Archives Available

December 17th 2012: Safe Social Zone for Children with Autism and other Learning Differences

Sara Winter is mom of two boys, one with ADHD, anxiety and celiac disease with a twelve year-old nephew on the autism spectrum. She created <http://www.squag.com/>, to encourage mindfulness, self-reflection and original thinking for kids with autism. Jonathan Schwartz, prior President and CEO at Sun Microsystems, is co-founder and Chief Executive Officer of CareZone, <https://carezone.com/>, developed for people like him who must simultaneously care for children and parents but find social networking sites insufficiently targeted toward the act of caregiving. They talk about their web services, di

Read more

SHARE DOWNLOAD PDF GET CODE

Tune in

Archives Available on VoiceAmerica
Variety Channel

EPISODE ON DEMAND

VIEW HOST PAGE

Featured Guests

Jonathan Schwartz

Jonathan Schwartz was President and CEO at Sun Microsystems prior to its acquisition by Oracle. He was also the founder and Chief Executive Officer of Lighthouse Design, Ltd., a software company platform, ultimately acquired by Sun. He's one quarter Indian, one quarter Welsh on his mother's side, and one quarter Hungarian, one quarter Russian on his father's side. He holds degrees in mathematics and economics. In 1986, he was nearly killed while riding on the Amtrak Colonial train that crashed in Chase, Maryland. He says the incident had a profound impact on his life. He is now the co-founder and Chief Executive Officer of CareZone, <https://carezone.com/>. H

Read more

Sara Winter

Sara Winter has a twelve year-old nephew on the autism spectrum. She's been his aide at school for a decade. She's the mom of two boys, one with ADHD, anxiety and celiac disease. She's passionate about creating social, recreational and creative opportunities for underestimated kids. She's been trained in key therapies. She created squag.com, a website that encourages mindfulness, self-reflection and original thinking for kids of 8+ with autism. Her parent/child communication system Squagpad™ is now being tested. She writes for The Huffington Post Canada, Autism Speaks Canada, Friendship Circle International, The Autism File Global, and Autism Aspergers Digest.

Read more

Share This Episode

Share On Facebook Share On Twitter Share On LinkedIn

Connect with VoiceAmerica

Download our mobile apps

Available on the App Store Get it on Google play Download for kindle f t in RSS

