January 08th 2013: Are You Willing to be Controversial?

The willingness to be different is controversial. Many people fear controversy and have the point of view controversy should be avoided. What if controversy is what's required to create your life as you would like it to be? Are you willing to tweak some people's universes, show up as you, and create more than you ever thought was possible? Are you willing to show up as the gift you truly are?
