Featured Guests

Maureen Francisco

Maureen Francisco When Maureen was only five years old, her family immigrated to the US from the Philippines. At the time, she spoke very little English, which made her the target of teasing at school. When Maureen wanted to pursue further education, she worked three jobs after school and on weekends. It wasn't easy, but she persevered, and graduated cum laude from Pacific Lutheran University, with a degree in Print/Broadcast Journalism. She was the only graduate in her class offered an on-air position right out of college. Maureen spent the next five years rising in the ranks of the media world as a TV news reporter or weekend anchor at station affiliates around the country, ending up a
