Access Consciousness Presents Beyond Saying Thank You

Archives Available

February 26th 2013: What's the cost of losing you in relationship?

Have you ever given yourself up in relationship? You're being you, you meet the person of your dreams, and then you start changing in order to please them. Does that sound familiar? In the end, how much of you is left? What does it cost you to give you up? What if there is a different possibility? What if you could create something that is far beyond what is commonly considered the "right" way to do relationship? What if relationship can give you more of you instead of diminishing you? Join us for a radically different look at what is actually possible to create as relationship.
