February 25th 2013: The Love Academy

How do we learn the lessons of love? Are they taught or are they lived? Where do the rules of relationship come from; and how come so many people seem to have their own rule book? This show serves as a follow up to the Healthy Relationships show that generated great discussion among both the married and the single. Join Melissa Brown with special guest, Debrena Jackson Gandy, a national speaker, relationship coach and best-selling author who will talk about the numerous myths we have about relationships and the rules men and women create that often bring more heartache instead of the lo
