CAPITAL THINKING with Squire Patton Boggs

Capital Thinking – Squire Patton Boggs Archives Available

February 21st 2013: "Climate Change, Alternative Energy Development and Sustainability"

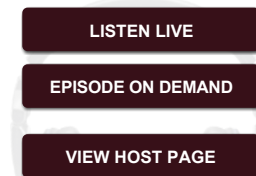

President Obama has made climate change and alternative energy development both priorities in his 2nd term, and Ohio University is leading cutting-edge research and contributing to the policy-making process. Join us on this week's Capital Thinking with host Kevin O'Neill to first discuss water, climate and energy with Scott Miller, Director of Ohio University's Consortium for Energy, Economics, and the Environment. Next, Jason Trembly, an Assistant Professor in Mechanical Engineering will detail his research on identifying methods to clean "fracking" wastewater on site. And, Loehr Professor
