Matthew Jeffers was born with a rare form of dwarfism, called Skeletal Dysplasia, but that has never dampened his extraordinary life philosophy that “the only real adversity is a bad attitude.” Matt will discuss the medical complications he has endured, and the influences that have made a positive difference in his life. Undaunted by his 4’2” size, Matt is successfully pursuing a career in theatre, and will share with us the role he recently played in inspiring the Baltimore Ravens to their Super Bowl championship.
