March 19th 2013: Legacies and Family Caregiving

Judith Snow, MA, has been labeled disabled. She's Founding Director of Laser Eagles Art Guild, www.lasereagles.com, which makes creative activity available to artists with diverse ability. She describes her own story, her career, the successes she's achieved, and her role as family caregiver. She explains legacies, at what stages of life are they relevant, and how are they affected by expectations. She describes her father's legacy and how he worked to achieve it. She discusses expectations when people go into long-term care or decide to live out their lives at home. She explains how legacies
