Live Your Life Archives Available March 18th 2013: The Courage to Be You

Do you have the courage to be who you were created to be, or are you living to please and accommodate others? If you are going to live the life of your dreams, then you must fully embrace the principle of, "to thine own self be true". You have been uniquely created and purposely designed; but too often we are living to the expectations of society, and even those we love. We struggle with accepting ourselves and being accepted by others. Listen in to this show as Melissa Brown once again helps you to free yourself from those things that help us to live small limiting lives and embrace the f
