March 15th 2013: Special Encore Presentation: Tulare Union High School - Z Project and Changing School Culture

Bullying in school s is a worldwide problem which can have negative consequences for the general school culture. Tulare Union High School is talking steps to change the culture on campus as well as the community by creating a safe environment where students can learn without fear. We are encouraging students and teachers to enter the dialogue regarding bullying though classroom deliberations, writing tasks, cooperative group teambuilding exercises, a Link Crew freshman mentoring and tutoring program schoolwide "Redskin Character" lessons as well Challenge Day opportunities, and student drive
