March 26th 2013: Bullying-A major Barrier to Student Learning

Former Kansas City Chiefs Kicker, Nick Lowery explains A new study tracking the effects of bullying, Duke University researchers have found that bullied children grow into adults who are at increased risk of anxiety disorders, depression and suicidal thoughts. In addition, bullies who had not been victimized themselves were four times more likely to have antisocial personality disorder. Here is the link to the study: <http://neatoday.org/2013/03/08/new-study-tracks-bullyings-impact-into-adulthood/>. Nick will discuss his efforts in Anti Bullying through the Nick Lowery Foundation which has wor
