April 01st 2013: Empowering Family Caregivers with Voice and Visibility

Donna Messer is the Queen of Networking, www.ow.ly/jppRm. She discusses her personal story and her experience with family caregiving. She describes her work and projects she's done that helped empower groups with voice and visibility. She discusses the challenges for any group that needs voice and visibility because it hasn't got enough of an audience and needs more visibility in places where decisions are made or where they face opposition. She describes the help they need, and explains why particular types of help are so important. She explains the services she advocates and provides, and gi
