April 15th 2013: Family Caregivers Helping Family Members Overcome Alcoholism

Michael Bryant is a Harvard-educated lawyer, former Ontario cabinet minister and university lecturer. He describes his personal story, the role of alcohol in his life, and his book, '28 Seconds, A True Story of Addiction, Tragedy, and Hope', www.ow.ly/jT7Bx. Based on his own experience, he describes alcoholism when it's fully developed, and its stages of development. He identifies warning signals that family caregivers should understand. He explains what they can do in response to the warning signals and the challenges created for family caregivers by alcoholism in a family member. He shares
