April 23rd 2013: Power To Excel-La Chic Prepares Girls For Success From Now Into The Future

No doubt we have heard it everywhere, from the United Nations to The New York Times: When we support the Growth and Empowering of Women and Girls, we Raise the Quality of Life for Everyone. This is because when women lead they not only lead businesses, they lead in their community, they fight for their children, and they give voice to issues that are important to our collective future -- like education and health care. Makes sense to me. Today's Guest Founder and Owner of La Chic Modeling & La Chic Mentoring Plus, Keisha Conigliaro will share with us the unique services her programs provide t

Keisha Conigliaro

Keisha Conigliaro Mrs. Conigliaro started her modeling career in the Bahamas. Her success in the Bahamas made her realize that she needed more exposure. At age 17, Keisha packed her bags and moved to Florida. Her tall thin frame made her an ideal model. She got her break when a professional photographer in Boston offered to be her agent and promote her in the Northeast. Keisha embarked on a very successful modeling career and traveled extensively for over 8 years. Keisha is a graduate of Marian Court College with her Associates in Medical Office Administration. Keisha is also a Certified Fitness Trainer and studied Social Work at Salem State University. In 2007, she started La Chic Modelin
