April 24th 2013: Structuring Business for ROI

How is your business vision tied to measurable and manageable key business objectives? How do you engage with your employees and instill in them the same passion you have for your company? How would your company function differently if all your employees, from entry to senior level, had goals that were aligned to you business' core values? Michael Rose's innovative, game-changing approach to communication is born of his unorthodox viewpoint that turns business organization on its side. He teaches leaders and management a new way to achieve personal growth and business success through effici
