April 23rd 2013: Mobility and Finance: Impact, Trends and the Future

Today's buzz: Finance on the move. Mobility could soon change the face of your company's finance function. The benefits of mobile BI are indeed impressive – faster and cheaper decision-making, improved productivity, enhanced agility, perpetual forecasting, and more. But before you jump on this bandwagon, first plan the smartest route to avoid these potential bumps along the way: data security on mobile devices, device limitations, your current backend infrastructure, and opening your decision process to many more people. Hmm. The experts speak. Surya Mukherjee, Ovum: "Mobile BI sits at
