April 23rd 2013: Communication Training: Public Speaking and Speech Writing

Jill Schiefelbein brings over a decade of teaching experience to the surface in this unique episode of Communication Nation. Once a month Jill will take over the show and train listeners on special communication topics. Today's episode covers public speaking and speech writing. Between each commercial break you'll get information that you can take and immediately apply in your professional life. Jill will also direct you to supplemental videos that can help in your training and development on Impromptu Guru. In this show, listeners will learn about nervousness and anxiety, and ways to ov
