April 24th 2013: How to Manage Transition as a Leader

As an organization works through a new program, a number of unexpected circumstances could threaten to derail this new transition along with legacy programs. It could be scarce funding, a change of culture or of talent, too rapid growth or a shift in leadership and the respect, process and policies that go along with them. How can a leader work to keep a group stable through a period of organizational change? What needs to be done to make sure everything goes according to plan?
