April 27th 2013: What To Do After Russia

So much heartbreak, so many families affected by the tragedy of Russia banning US Adoptions this past year. What are the next steps? If you were one of the many caught in this political quagmire, there may be solutions for you in other countries that are now available. Beacon House Adoption, specialized and was certified in Russian adoptions for over 20 years. Like many full service domestic and international adoption agencies, they have had to retool and offer other inter-country options to their families. Some of the new countries that are now available for adoption through Beacon House
