February 7th 2013: Stop the Bullying

Marlise Karlin is recognized globally for igniting an energy of peace that brings exceptional healing to the mind and body. One of her current topics is to stop bullying. She believes that in order to stop bullying of ourselves and others, we have to resolve the core issue—you can't recognize the value of another human being if you don't recognize your own. "When we go beyond the surface to the core of our greatest intelligence, which lies at the heart of stillness, no one has to tell us to value another. It comes naturally because we have connected to the basic tenets of what it is to be human
