

Family Caregivers Unite!
Archives Available
May 20th 2013: Multiple Sclerosis, Family
Conversations about Care

Tune in

Archives Available on
VoiceAmerica Variety Channel

EPISODE ON DEMAND

VIEW HOST PAGE

Ann Stewart is chapter manager of the www.msociety.ca/en, Multiple Sclerosis Society of Canada , Lethbridge & District Chapter. Norine Thomason has been caregiver to her husband Bill since he was diagnosed in 1969 with multiple sclerosis. They share their personal stories and explain the work of the MS Society. They highlight the most challenging of the challenges to quality of life for people living with MS, their family caregivers, and their families. They discuss the support most needed by people living with MS and their family caregivers to help them overcome the challenges to their quali

Read more

Featured Guests

Ann Stewart

Ann Stewart is a social worker with a Bachelor of Science degree from Montana State University. After practicing in social work with the state of Montana, she moved to Alberta.

Read more

Norine Thomason

Norine Thomason has been caregiver to her husband Bill since he was diagnosed in 1969 with multiple sclerosis, which progressed significantly over time. They are very supportive of each other.

Read more

Share This Episode

Connect with VoiceAmerica

Read what our hosts are writing about.

