Do you remember what your aspirations were when you were young? Did you pursue them, or has life taken you on a different path that has left you feeling you are not using your gifts and not living up to your potential? Kim Clausen of Ready2Go Marketing Solutions, had BIG aspirations when she was young, but for more than 40 years she waived, wandered, and did everything BUT her heart's call. When the frustration and despair finally became too much to bear, she made a change. Despite being a single mom with two children, no job and minimal financial resources, she found the strength and co
