June 11th 2013: CAN A PHONE APP REALLY SAVE THE LIVES OF OUR VETERANS?

CallApp is a smartphone App that removes a lot of the decision making for anyone at risk. The ability to intelligently route someone to a person of their choice is its biggest feature, especially during a moment of crisis. CallApp is a simple application designed to reduce the risk of suicide. When a button is pressed a series of user options become available. For example if "Live Support" is selected, CallApp identifies the users location and scans a list of pre-installed support providers in their area using its in-built location tracking system. If that option is selected CallApp dials th
