June 18th 2013: Crisis Intervention

Crisis can happen to anyone, anywhere – be it at work or at home. And crisis can cause collateral damage to people who weren't immediately or directly affected by it. Knowing how to recognize the warning signs and being educated on steps you can take to help ease the burden of those affected by crisis is vitally important to businesses and individuals alike. Join us as Nicole Sundine, retired law enforcement officer, victims advocate and founder of Realistic Safety Solutions, walks us through the process of recognizing when someone needs help, ways to help them, and when to bring in an exper

Nicole Sundine

Nicole Sundine is the founder of Realistic Safety Solutions, a company that teaches realistic strategies to protect people from threats to both emotional and physical safety. Nicole has been an advocate for the rights of crime victims for twenty-five years. During her career in law enforcement, she led the Victim Assistance Unit where she worked with thousands of crime victims, learning about the dynamics that led to their victimization. As a detective, the focus of Nicole's case assignment was special victims crimes, including assault, domestic violence and stalking. Nicole has a degree in Psychology and has spent years analyzing true crime cases to determine ways to prevent victimiz
