December 16th 2010: A Prescription for Creativity

Neil Tepper, "The Creativity Doctor" will join us from his home in Hololulu to discuss personal creativity as well as creativity in the workplace. Some of the things we will address with Neil will be: how to be more productive with less stress; how to break through old beliefs that don't align with who you are now; how to operate with peak performance and live from your true power; and how to pursue your passion and your profession. Neil is a coach, teacher, speaker and consultant who advises clients across the country on how to improve all aspects of their personal and professional lives.
