June 2nd 2011: Leadership is Dead

“Leadership” is a term that has been studied, analyzed, defined, and redefined for decades. When businessman and entrepreneur Jeremie Kubicek was hurt in a life threatening car accident, he was faced with his own mortality – and was able to gain a kind of clarity that few will ever experience. Realizing that far too many people who claim to be leaders have abused their positions and lost their moral bearing, Kubicek decided to free himself from the old self-centered view of leadership and embrace a broader, more positive view – one of influence. We will discuss his ideas of leadership and hi
