August 25th 2011: From Kung Fu to Peaceful Mediation

Doug Noll is a peacemaker. With a background as a trial attorney, a black belt in Chinese Kung Fu and experience working with women in the world's toughest prison, he certainly has the knowledge and skill to resolve conflict in non-peaceful ways. He chooses peacemaking through mediation. As he became interested in international mediation efforts he observed that international mediators, for the most part, were inexperienced in the science and art of mediation. Their rookie mistakes were making things worse, often leading to genocide or further war. Unfortunately, political leaders, diplomats,
