September 8th 2011: Walking Through Illusion

In these financially troubled times many have come to the brink of homelessness. More people than we care to count have lost everything, including their home, and are struggling to start over. Betsy Thompson, before it was too late, recognized the source of her problem and began to change – to stop blaming everyone else for her problems. She learned many lessons from the experience and has written about them for our benefit. In Walking Through Illusion she challenges us to become accountable for our own lives. She will share with us how she turned her situation around and what it means to “Wa
