November 17th 2011: From Hell and Back with Lyme Disease

Katina Makris has a story to tell that each of us needs to hear. It is a story of illness, of courage, of determination, or healing and of love. As a homeopathic physician, wife, mother of a tiny child, newspaper columnist and a woman who was exceptionally strong and healthy, Katina went through an ordeal that would flatten most of us in the first weeks of onset. In an instant she plummeted from robust health to debilitating illness. For five long years she battled pain, confusion, the fear of not knowing what was happening to her and where it was taking her. Life as she knew it was over and
