February 2nd 2012: Joy as a Transforming Agent

Pat Armistead is the world's first "Joyologist" She will not only tell us what that is but she will share her adventures using humor to help people heal and corporations thrive. She definitely thinks "outside the box" and will talk about how she's perceived by the medical and academic communities and how she deals with the mainstream community. Pat will give us an inside view of her travels with Patch Adams and give us the "real skinny" on why she is driven to do what she does. She will give our listeners her biggest breakthrough tips and has offered to give away two copies of her book, Hum
