May 10th 2012: Gratitude from the Grave

Donnie Tash, a psychotherapist, was a reluctant psychic. Emerging from a coma after surgical complications, he had abilities he had never had before. Much to his own surprise, he was able to communicate with those who have crossed over to the other side as well as communicate with animals. On this show we will talk about how he communicates with those on the other side and will play some excerpts from readings he has done. Donnie has an uncanny ability to get names and give details that can only be known by those close to the person who has passed over. Often they express gratitude for what ha
