Imagine being at the epitome of success--a powerful executive and self-made millionaire. From the depths of the ocean as a submariner to the heights of corporate jets as CEO, your life's filled with luxury. But, at the height of your life, you shatter your neck and with it, the glass barrier that conveniently sheltered you from the meaning and purpose of life. During the process of rehabilitation, you leave your body, converse with God, and acquire powers supposedly not possessed by mortals: experiencing prophetic visions and receiving powerful insights. Your conclusion based on your near deat
