June 26th 2013: Hypothyroidism: Why Do Doctors Ignore The Obvious?

Is your doctor telling you that you're thyroid is in normal range with a TSH of 4.8? But, are you fatigued, experiencing severe pms, irregular cycles or pcos? Do you still feel cold when others are not? Are you gaining weight and noticing hair loss? Are you having difficulty getting pregnant? Are you at your wit's end? Welcome to the insane world of hypothyroidism! An epidemic that is plaguing over 30 million American women and counting. It is grossly misunderstood, under diagnosed and poorly treated. The good news is that Dana Cohen, MD, one of NYC's leading Integrative Physicians will

Dana Cohen, MD

Dana Cohen, MD, is a nationally renowned internal and integrative medicine specialist whose multi-disciplinary approach has helped treat thousands of patients using a variety of conventional and complementary therapies. In practice for nearly two decades, Cohen trained under the late Dr. Robert Atkins, author of the iconic, "Dr. Atkins' New Diet Revolution," and Dr. Ronald L. Hoffman, a pioneer of integrative medicine and founder of the Hoffman Center in New York City. Cohen earned her medical degree from St. George's University School of Medicine and completed a three-year internal medicine residency at Albany Medical Center and was board-certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine
