July 15th 2013: Grief Counselling for Grieving Parents

Patricia Hung is a police officer with over 20 years' experience, business owner, certified grief coach, author, and a speaker. She tells us about her personal story as the mother of a murdered child, and talks about the help she needed and what success she had in finding it. She's the owner of www.coachingjoy.com. She says why she created it, and explains its work. She talks about parents' grieving and grieving generally. She discusses grieving's stages, and its challenges and complications, and its consequences if the complications and challenges prevail. She explains grief counselling, what
