July 27th 2013: Best of Your Adoption Coach: Choosing an Adoption Agency– Amanda Grant

One of the first steps in the adoption process is choosing an agency. This is a complex decision and one that will be integral to your adoption journey. Too often, folks rush in because they simply want to get the process started and don't take the necessary time to interview agencies and even ask the right questions. We will be joined by Amanda Grant, CEO and Founder of US Adopt who has designed a specific process for how to choose an agency. Amanda has created some very comprehensive adoption education tools to guide people through the process more quickly and confidently while reduc

Amanda Grant

CEO and Founder of US Adopt, an adoption professional, and adoptive parent herself, while working full-time at a demanding career, as a senior officer in the institutional investment business went through the domestic adoption process. She experienced the many challenges and pressures people encounter when they decide to build a family through adoption. Based on several years of research, and her personal experience, she developed adoption education tools to guide people through the process more quickly and confidently while reducing risk and cost. These tools formed the basis of USAdopt. Amanda has her Clinical Certification in Adoption from Rutgers University.
