Afflicted By Addiction Archives Available

July 30th 2013: The Rockstar-Superstar Project reaches youth and parents alike across the US.

Twin brothers legally change their names and devote their life to helping others understand addiction through music, assembly's, community events and "Kid Klubz." Now known as Rock Star & Super Star these twins who fought their own demons of addiction share their story and put themselves in front of your youth to educate and raise awareness on drugs, addiction, recovery, bullying, self-esteem and dream catching. Super Star shares their unique message as they work with legendary rock stars to write and produce music that sings the story of healing and hope!

Super Star

Super Star, yes that's his legal name, is a musician, author, life coach, motivational speaker. He is a former owner/president of a successful, cutting-edge computer consulting firm which he lost to a drug addiction. This journey through addiction and into recovery has led Super Star to find his passion within. He has subsequently rebuilt a life of purpose and commitment geared toward anti-substance abuse campaigning. He made the courageous leap to relentlessly pursue his vision and make it a reality. He found the resilience to bounce back and the persistence to keep pressing forward when doors kept closing in front of him. He overcame obstacles with a creative boldness to invent the life h
