Family Caregivers Unite!

Family Caregivers Unite! Archives Available August 13th 2013: Naturopaths and Prevention of Cardiovascular Disease

Dr. Dugald Seely, a naturopathic doctor, is director of research and clinical epidemiology at the www.ccnm.edu, Canadian College of Naturopathic Medicine and Executive Director for the www.oicc.ca, Ottawa Integrative Cancer Centre. He describes his background and his work in naturopathic medicine. He explains how naturopathic medicine differs from the medicine practiced by family doctors. He says why he and his colleagues undertook the research described in the article they published in 2013, and tells us about his research colleagues. He explains the research's purposes, how it was conducted
