According to Maya Angelou, "People will forget what you said. People will even forget what you did. But people will never forget how you made them feel." Nowhere is that idea more relevant than in business. The smartest, most successful business people are those who recognize the very human side of business. In a recent blog post, my guest, and leading performance expert, Joe Calloway said, "Great leaders prepare people to succeed, they don't pressure them to succeed. That means being a teacher, being tough when you need to be, yet always having the team know that you believe in them, you're o
