August 27th 2013: In Caring, Who Caregivers and Family Caregivers Are

Caroline Tapp-McDougall is the publisher and editor of Caregiver Solutions magazine, a Canadian publication dedicated to the wellness of seniors and their caregivers and family. She talks about her life, career and experience with family caregiving, the magazine, and about her organization, www.canadacares.org. She explains why family caregivers are sometimes called 'caregivers', and the difference between the two names. She describes the types and importance of the care family caregivers provide for their family members. She identifies the most challenging of the challenges that family caregi
