August 24th 2013: Grief, Ritual and the Soul of the World –
PART ONE – An interview with Francis Weller, MFT

Join us for this two-part series exploring grief and its capacity to lift us into love, joy, generosity and compassion. Francis Weller's new book, Entering the Healing Ground – Grief, Ritual and the Soul of the World is so deeply honest, insightful, and hopeful that I have invited him to be a guest on two shows, back to back. He writes, "This book is about grief...about how sorrow carves riverbeds in our soul, deepening us as it flows in and out of our lives." His style of writing and speaking is poetic, and yet one feels as though they are in conversation with a neighbor. "...without it [grief]"

Francis Weller

Francis Weller, MFT, is a psychotherapist, writer and soul activist. He is a master of synthesizing diverse streams of thought from psychology, anthropology, mythology, alchemy, indigenous cultures and poetic traditions. Author of "The Wild Edge of Sorrow: Rituals of Renewal and the Sacred Work of Grief," he has introduced the healing work of ritual to thousands of people. The core of his work is creating pathways to reclaiming our indigenous soul, what psychologist Carl Jung called the "unforgotten wisdom" that resides in the heart of the psyche. Out of this core, he founded and directs Wisdom Bridge, to provide educational programs that seek to integrate wisdom from traditional cultures wi
